CONVENTION HIGHLIGHTS
Whether you’re a first time attendee or a Convention veteran, there is something for everyone at the virtual NAMIC Annual Convention.

CUTTING-EDGE EDUCATION ON-DEMAND
New more than ever executives need to know what’s happening in the industry and how to adapt to the changing business environment. The executive-focused agenda features emerging issues, industry updates, and thought leadership on how to lead your organization through these challenging times. The virtual environment allows you to obtain this timely and relevant education in an interactive virtual setting. Join sessions live and participate in Q&A with speakers or access sessions on-demand when it’s convenient for you.

CERTIFICATION OFFERINGS
Credits for NAMIC’s Professional Farm Mutual Manager (PFMM) designation and Farm Mutual Director Certification (FMDC) will still be available at the virtual Annual Convention.

VIRTUAL SPONSOR SHOWCASE
The Marketplace for Mutuals has moved online! Attendees can visit virtual booths, connect live via video chat, schedule meetings, and engage with sponsors in order to make connections and find new resources. We are excited to provide an opportunity for you and your team to still build your professional networks at the virtual NAMIC Annual Convention.

CONNECT WITH PEERS VIRTUALLY
The virtual conference platform will allow you to schedule video conferences, view the virtual sponsor showcase, and connect live via video chatroom with other attendees to grow your professional network.

BRAVE THE (VIRTUAL) SHAVE
A longtime charitable organization of choice for NAMIC, The St. Baldrick’s Foundation is the largest private funder of childhood cancer research grants in the United States. The tradition of head shaving at the NAMIC Annual Convention will continue this year as part of the virtual 125th Annual Convention, marking the eighth year NAMIC has hosted the fundraiser.
