

Underwriting Webinar Series –Understanding Facultative Reinsurance

Thursday, June 8, 2017, 2:00 p.m.

Steve Moran
Casualty Facultative Branch Manager
General Reinsurance Corporation
Overland Park, Kan.

Steve Moran is a vice president and branch manager in Gen Re's Kansas City office. He is also the casualty regional segment leader and casualty facultative program team member.

He began his career in 1987 as an underwriting with the Travelers Insurance in the Des Moines, Iowa, branch. Steve also worked in the Omaha and Kansas City Travelers offices holding various underwriting and marketing responsibilities, along with managing a national program for welding and industrial supply dealers. He started his casualty facultative career in 1998 with Employers Reinsurance and currently has been with Gen Re in Kansas City for the last 16 years.

Steve graduated in 1987 from Westmar College in Le Mars, Iowa, with a bachelor's degree in business management.

Webinar Description:

This webinar will explain the spectrum of reinsurance facultative products and how facultative reinsurance can help a primary company grow, retain, and improve underwriting results. We will review the products and classes of business offered and written by property/casualty facultative underwriters and discuss various program solutions.